EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
EASTERN DIVISION

ISAIAH FORMAN,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE CITY OF WOODSON TERRACE
and/or THE WOODSON TERRACE
POLICE DEPARTMENT,

Defendant.

Cause No.: 4:20-cv-681

*Removed from the Circuit Court of
St. Louis County Division 1,
Cause No. 20SL-CC02304*

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

MEMORANDU IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS, FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT, AND TO STRIKE

Defendant City of Woodson Terrace, Missouri offers the following legal support for its motion to dismiss Plaintiff's complaint (aka Petition [ECF 1-1]) for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 12(b)(6), or for more definite statement under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 12(e) and to strike under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 12(f).

I. Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief May Be Granted

A police department is not a "juridical entity suable under § 1983." See Pitts v. City of Cuba, 913 F. Supp. 2d 688, 701 (E.D. Mo. 2012) (citing Catlett v. Jefferson County, 299 F. Supp. 2d 967, 969 (E.D. Mo. 2004)). As such, "The City of Woodson Terrace Police Department" lacks the capacity to be sued and must be dismissed.

Additionally, the Plaintiff appears to have interchanged and/or conflated The City of Woodson Terrace with the nonjuridical entity "The City of Woodson Terrace Police Department" [ECF 1-1 ¶4]. Binding precedent is clear, via Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs. of City of New York, 436 U.S. 658, 98 S. Ct. 2018, 56 L. Ed. 2d 611 (1978) and its progeny, that a municipality may only be responsible for acts for which it is actually responsible, and not upon mere agency theories of respondeat superior or vicarious liability. Pembaur v. City of Cincinnati, 475 U.S. 469, 479, 106 S. Ct. 1292, 1298, 89 L. Ed. 2d 452 (1986). Therefore, it is necessary that Plaintiff make allegations against a final policymaker for the City.

As the Plaintiff's petition interchanges, conflates and confuses the Woodson Terrace Police Department with the City, it has failed to articulate factual allegations against a final policymaker of the City itself. See Atkinson v. City of Mountain View, Mo., 709 F.3d 1201, 1214 (8th Cir. 2013) (police chief is not the final policymaker of a Missouri Fourth Class City).<sup>1</sup> Instead, the Plaintiff has offered mere legal conclusions without support. "While legal conclusions can provide the complaint's framework, they must be supported by factual allegations." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 679, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1950, 173 L. Ed. 2d 868 (2009). Accordingly, the complaint should be dismissed.

II. Motion for More Definite Statement (Alternative)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(e) states that "[a] party may move for a more definite statement of a pleading to which a responsive pleading is allowed but which is so vague or ambiguous that the party cannot reasonably prepare a response." Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(e). "A motion for more definite statement is proper when a party is unable to determine issues he must meet, or where there is a major ambiguity or omission in the complaint that renders it unanswerable." Tinder v. Lewis Cty. Nursing Home Dist., 207 F. Supp. 2d 951, 959 (E.D. Mo. 2001) (internal citation omitted).

That the Plaintiff's complaint continually conflates the City of Woodson Terrace with the non-suable "The City of Woodson Terrace Police Department" renders the complaint vague because it confuses the allegations which the Plaintiff intends to direct toward the final policymaker of the City. Such confusion is significant because it blurs the lines demarking jurisdiction and final policymaking authority, the determination of which is necessary to determine any possible liability under Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs. of City of New York, 436 U.S. 658, 98 S. Ct. 2018, 56 L. Ed. 2d 611 (1978). The resulting ambiguity renders the Complaint unanswerable and the Defendant therefore seeks the clarity as requested in its motion so that it may appropriately respond.

<sup>1</sup> This Court can take judicial notice of the fact that, as published in The Missouri Roster for the Missouri Secretary of State 2019-2020, The City of Woodson Terrace is a City of the Fourth Class:

III. Motion to Strike Claim for Punitive Damages Against the City

The United States Supreme Court has clearly held that municipalities are immune from punitive damages under § 1983: “[W]e hold that a municipality is immune from punitive damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.” City of Newport v. Fact Concerts, Inc., 453 U.S. 247, 271, 101 S. Ct. 2748, 2762, 69 L. Ed. 2d 616 (1981). It is therefore appropriate under Rule 12(f) that the Plaintiff’s allegations and prayer seeking punitive damages in this case be stricken in their entirety, including but not limited to the allegations in paragraph 25 of the complaint and the prayer. [ECF 1-1 at p. 7]; see, e.g., Riggs v. City of Owensville, 4:10-CV-793 CAS, 2010 WL 2681384, at *1 (E.D. Mo. July 2, 2010).
